PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

If a convenient location is important, this is the place for you. This beautiful home is located in Pace and is within walking distance from Target, Home Depot, Wall-Mart, and restaurants. The tapered porch columns accent this great design, which is the Buenos Aires II floor plan. Just look at the photos and you'll agree that this home has style. The extras start with the hardwood flooring in the foyer. Ahead is the bricked archway to the family room. After entering the family room you can see the recessed area above the fireplace that will hold your plasma TV. Stainless steel appliances, high quality wood cabinets and granite counter tops adorn the kitchen. Another accent in the kitchen is the under counter lighting. The split floor plan is popular with most folks and the master bedroom tray ceiling adds that special touch. Having three full baths meets the large families. No wonder this was a favorite stopping place during the 2010 Parade of Homes. Click here for Video: 4789 Spears St, Pace FL 32571
